

Fundraising Concert to build an orphanage and a well in Masai village in Kenya

WHEN: October 13-th 2012 (Saturday) 6 pm.

WHERE: Polish Home Association; 1714 18TH Ave; Seattle, WA 98122.

SUGGESTED DONATION: $ 35.00 (100% of donation to project).

HISTORY: As many of you know, we have been working for several years in various African countries. We started in Masai village in Kenya then, two years ago we travelled to a remote village in Tanzania where we installed a well, built a school and an orphanage. Earlier this year we have built a school in Uganda. Now the people of these villages have made a specific appeal.

GOAL: To build an orphanage with a well that will be self-sustaining, able of growing its own food on nearby farmland, thereby increasing the young peoples' ability to better their own lives. Funds for the well are needed soon, so that the work may be finished in time for this year's planting season.

PROGRAM:

L. v Beethoven: Sonata OP 101, A Major.

F. Chopin: Mazurkas Op 63.

F. Liszt: Rigoletto Paraphrase and Transcendental Etude "Feux Folets".

S Prokofiev: "Romeo and Juliet" Suite.

PERFORMERS:

Enjoy the solo piano performances of these two internationally trained pianists and sought-after piano pedagogues, Dr Ivona Kaminska and Dr Christopher Bowlby as well as their most talented and promising students, Robert Yan (age 12) and Jay Grinols (age) 13, both winners of numerous piano festivals and competitions of the Northwest as they prepare for their Debut Concerts in Carnegie Hall in New York City in later October, 2012.

SPECIAL THANKS:

The performers, Rainbow Foundation of Magnolia and the audience thank Chopin Academy of Music and Sherman Clay of Seattle for making it possible to use the wonderful Steinway piano.
