

Fundraising Concert to build an orphanage in Masai village in Kenya

WHEN: December -8th. 2013 (Sunday). 3 pm.

WHERE: Polish Home Association; 1714 18TH Ave; Seattle, WA 98122.

SUGGESTED DONATION: $ 35.00 (100% of donation to project).

HISTORY: As many of you know, we have been working for several years in various African countries. We started in Masai village in Kenya then, three years ago we travelled to a remote village in Tanzania where we installed a well, built a school and an orphanage. Earlier this year we have built a school in Uganda. Now the people of Kenya village have made a specific appeal.

GOAL: To build an orphanage with a well that will be self-sustaining, able of growing its own food on nearby farmland, thereby increasing the young peoples' ability to better their own lives.

PROGRAM:

Sonata in D Major, Op.10/3 "Presto" by L. van Beethoven

Prelude and Fuge in D Minor by J. S. Bach

Scherzo in B Minor, No. 1 by F. Chopin

Sonata No. 2 in D Minor by S. Prokofiev

"Mephisto" Walz No. 1 by F. Liszt

PERFORMERS:

Enjoy the solo piano performances of these two internationally trained pianists and sought-after piano pedagogues, Dr Ivona Kaminska and Dr Christopher Bowlby as well as their most talented and promising students: Robert Yan, Jay Grinols, Arthur Yan, Meili Zhang and Leah Deobald, winners of numerous piano festivals and competitions of the Northwest, from the Chopin Academy of Music in Issaquah.
