

Classical Concert Fundraiser

Benefiting Rainbow of Magnolia Fountains of Life

Suggested Price: $35

All funds collected go directly to the children of Panauti, Nepal.

Common items include books, writing utensils, games, food, and clothing.

Rainbow of Magnolia Landscaping has also pledged to match all donations from the event up to $5000.

Sunday, September 7th, 2014

2:00pm

Polish Home Association

1714 18th Ave, Seattle WA 98122

Performances:

- Robert Yan (age 14): Mozart's Sonata in D Major, K 284 and "Faust Walz" by Franz Liszt
- Arthur Yan (age 11): Bach's English Suite in G Minor: Prelude, Gavottes and Gigue
- Alex Camai (age 15): Bach's Prelude and Fugue in D Major, book II
- Nile Camai (age 12): Bach Prelude and Fugue in A Flat Major, book I
- Laiza Williamson (age 17): Szymanowski Etude Op 4/ 3 and Schumann "Carnaval aux Wien"

RainbowOfMagnoliaFountainsOfLife.org

Special Thanks:

Chopin Academy of Music
Marczynski Family
Jacobsen Family
Employees of Rainbow of Magnolia Landscaping
&

To all of our supporters over the years.
None of this is possible without your generous support!

Upcoming Events:

Missionary trip to Nepal &
Kathmandu Marathon
(September 2014)

Annual Fundraising Week
(1- 5 December 2014)

Missionary trip to Uganda
and Kenya
(February 2015)